

2006/2007 through 2013/2014 Capital Outlay Projects
California State University

Campus:	Systemwide
Project Name:	Capital Renewal 2006/2007
Project Description:	Funds are requested for capital renewal for the replacement of building components and/or systems that have exceeded their useful life based on the manufacturer's standard, as evaluated. Major building systems will be replaced to enable the continued function and use of an aged facility. The building components renewed will typically include: the heating, ventilation and air conditioning system, plumbing system, electrical distribution system and building exterior skin and window systems. Energy and utility efficiency improvements will be pursued with these projects as appropriate.
